

Dear NewCAJE community,

Below you will find a letter from Rebecca Coleman who recently left NewCAJE for a new opportunity. For the past three years, Rebecca has done an outstanding job running our conference and our office. Many of you have had the opportunity to work with her and I know she will be missed. I know you will join me in wishing her well and inviting her to come join us as part of the NewCAJE family.

Given Rebecca left mid-year, it was critical to find someone who was familiar with the conference to take Rebecca's position in an interim role. I am thrilled to tell you that Leora Koller-Fox will be the Conference Coordinator for NewCAJE 8. Leora has been a participant at about 25 CAJE and NewCAJE conferences and helped organize 5. She brings an MBA and lots of Jewish organizational experience to the job. She is based in Boston. The Board of NewCAJE is grateful that she made herself available to help us through this transition. There is a note from her below as well. Please make her feel like part of the NewCAJE family!

Cherie

From Rebecca Buzen Coleman:

"It is with a heavy heart that I am sharing with you my decision to leave NewCAJE for a new opportunity. It's hard to believe that just three years ago I started at NewCAJE as the conference coordinator. During this time, I've had the pleasure to get to know many of you and am touched by the incredible passion you have for Jewish education and NewCAJE. A special thank you to Cherie for her support and guidance. I know that you are in great hands with Leora as the new Conference Coordinator and am sure that NewCAJE8 will be a great success."

From Leora Koller-Fox:

"I'm so excited to join the NewCAJE team full-time. Some of you have met me at past CAJE and NewCAJE conferences and I can't wait to meet more of this inspiring and vibrant community. I know we'll all miss Rebecca and thank her for her hard work. I'm looking forward to coordinating the conference. This year, we are looking to expand our volunteer base. If you have time before the conference or would like to help out during that week, please let me know. For volunteering inquiries or any questions about the conference, you can reach me at leora@newcaje.org or 857-288-8765."
